SOUVENIR OF THE WEEK

Just in time for Michigan State fans, in case they feel the urge to change channels this fall: the first officially licensed Spartans universal remote, which will operate up to four devices.

The green-and-white remote is $19.99. If you can't find it at your local retailer, it's also available at the MSU Bookstore, spartan-book.com and msualum.com.

Remotes for other schools will be available from the North American Licensing Company later this year, including Michigan.
